ADMINISTRATION

RAMBOUILLET STAFF

Standing: La Voy Thornock, Miss Applegate, Mrs. Teichert, Horace

Stocco.

Seated: Marian Bender, Marianne Gastenaga, Laurie Teichert, Dewayne

Langford.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Standing: Calvin Coziah, Dewayne Langford, Dennis Eschler.

Seated: Marian Bender, Gloria Jacobsen, Horace Stocco, Anna Bee

Jackson, Marianne Gastenaga.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council during the past year was unusually active and successfully accomplished its one main objective. This objective was the ratification of the point system. The point system, as it now functions, enables students to receive an award for their efforts in the form of an honor pin. A specified number of points must be garnered, however, before the award may be won.

The Student Council was composed of the president and one representative from each of the high school classes. It selected and produced the annual student body play, which, by the way, proved to be highly successful and entertaining.

Horace Stocco was chosen chairman and Marian Bender secretary of the organization. A meeting was held each Thursday, and much enjoyment as well as much hard work was derived by its members from these meetings.

ANNUAL STAFF

The yearbook staff of '41-'42 was selected by the Student Council. It was organized in the following manner:

Editor-in-Chief .....	Marianne Gastenaga
Business Managers .....	La Voy Thornock ..... Duane Langford
Copy Editors .....	Edith Igo ..... Laurie Teichert
Humor Editors .....	Horace Stocco ..... Marian Bender
Advisers .....	Mrs. Teichert ..... Miss Applegate

The members of the staff have worked earnestly to produce for you a yearbook in which you may preserve some of your memories of high school days in C. H. S. May you enjoy it.

ART CLASS

The junior high and high school art classes revealed remarkable talent this year in several different fields. Linoleum block cutting was started, and some very splendid prints were obtained. Tempura and ink, already favorites, went to make a number of masterpieces. The size of classes as well as the works of art has been increased.

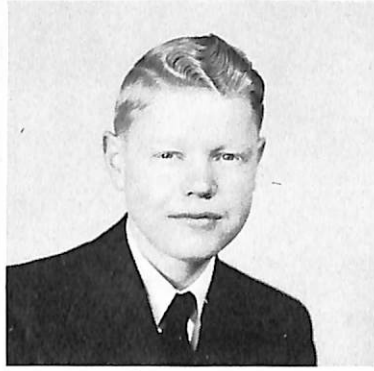

The art class has been a great help in compiling the annual. They designed and cut the linoleum blocks for the annual division pages.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Duane Lanford ..... President
Jane Nate ..... Secretary-Treasurer
Marian Bender ..... Student Body Representative

We, the nineteenth class of Cokeville High School to attempt this mighty mountain of Education, carefully pursued our way up the densely wooded slopes. We were guided over the mountain streams and many obstacles by Kenneth Birch and Duane Langford, and although the way was uncertain, we bravely forged ahead and attended to our various responsibilities.

When we reached timber line, we paused for a rest and talked over our past successes. They were: our Freshman Frolic barn dance, with everyone wearing overalls and aprons and being greeted at the door by a lanky scarecrow; our patriotic Sophomore Hop, with a huge flag for the ceiling and a Statue of Liberty reigning over the festivities. Our Junior Prom, held in Dutch gardens; our Junior Play, a successful hill-billy comedy.

So much for the past—now we must look forward to the hardest part of our ascent. Full of hope we turn skyward.

SENIOR WILL

We, the class of '42 of Cokeville High School, being of sound body and superior intellect, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Harold Alley, bequeath my basketball ability to Bob Hendricks.

I, Fern Bailey, will my queenly stature to Jeanne Erramouspe.

I, Marye Erramouspe, leave my long flowing tresses to Jennie Mae Henning.

I, Marianne Gastenaga, leave my dancing ability to Joyce Cornelson.

I, Edith Igo, will my graciousness and charm to Mae Jean Larson.

I, Kenneth Quintana, will my love of social life to Orlean Sizemore.

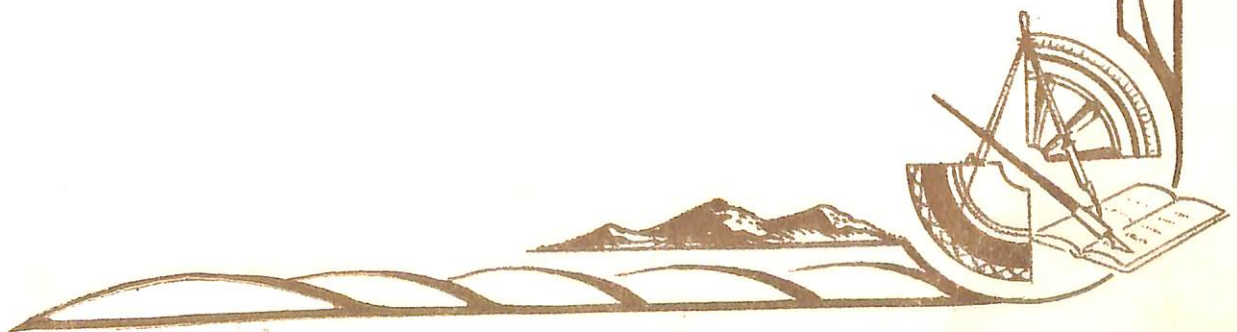

I, Frances Rawlings, will my carefree attitude to Ronald Thompson.

I, Horace Stocco, will by interest in school activities to Mary O'Neill.

I, Laurie Teichert, will my speaking ability to Reha Hart.

I, Rhoda Zumbrennen, will my faithfulness in love to Lilly Bruce.

We, the class of '42, leave to the Juniors (with some misgivings) our ability to overcome obstacles financially, scholastically, and executive.

SOPHOMORES

Calvin Coziah ..... President
Clara Maninfior ..... Secretary-Treasurer
Anna Bee Jackson..... Student Body Representative

Fully equipped and ready to scale the face of Initiation, we the class of '44, few in number but brave in heart, were led by Ronald Thompson. The first steep incline we encountered was our Hallowe'en dance. Having braved this, the Freshmen year was conquered and we were ready for future difficulties.

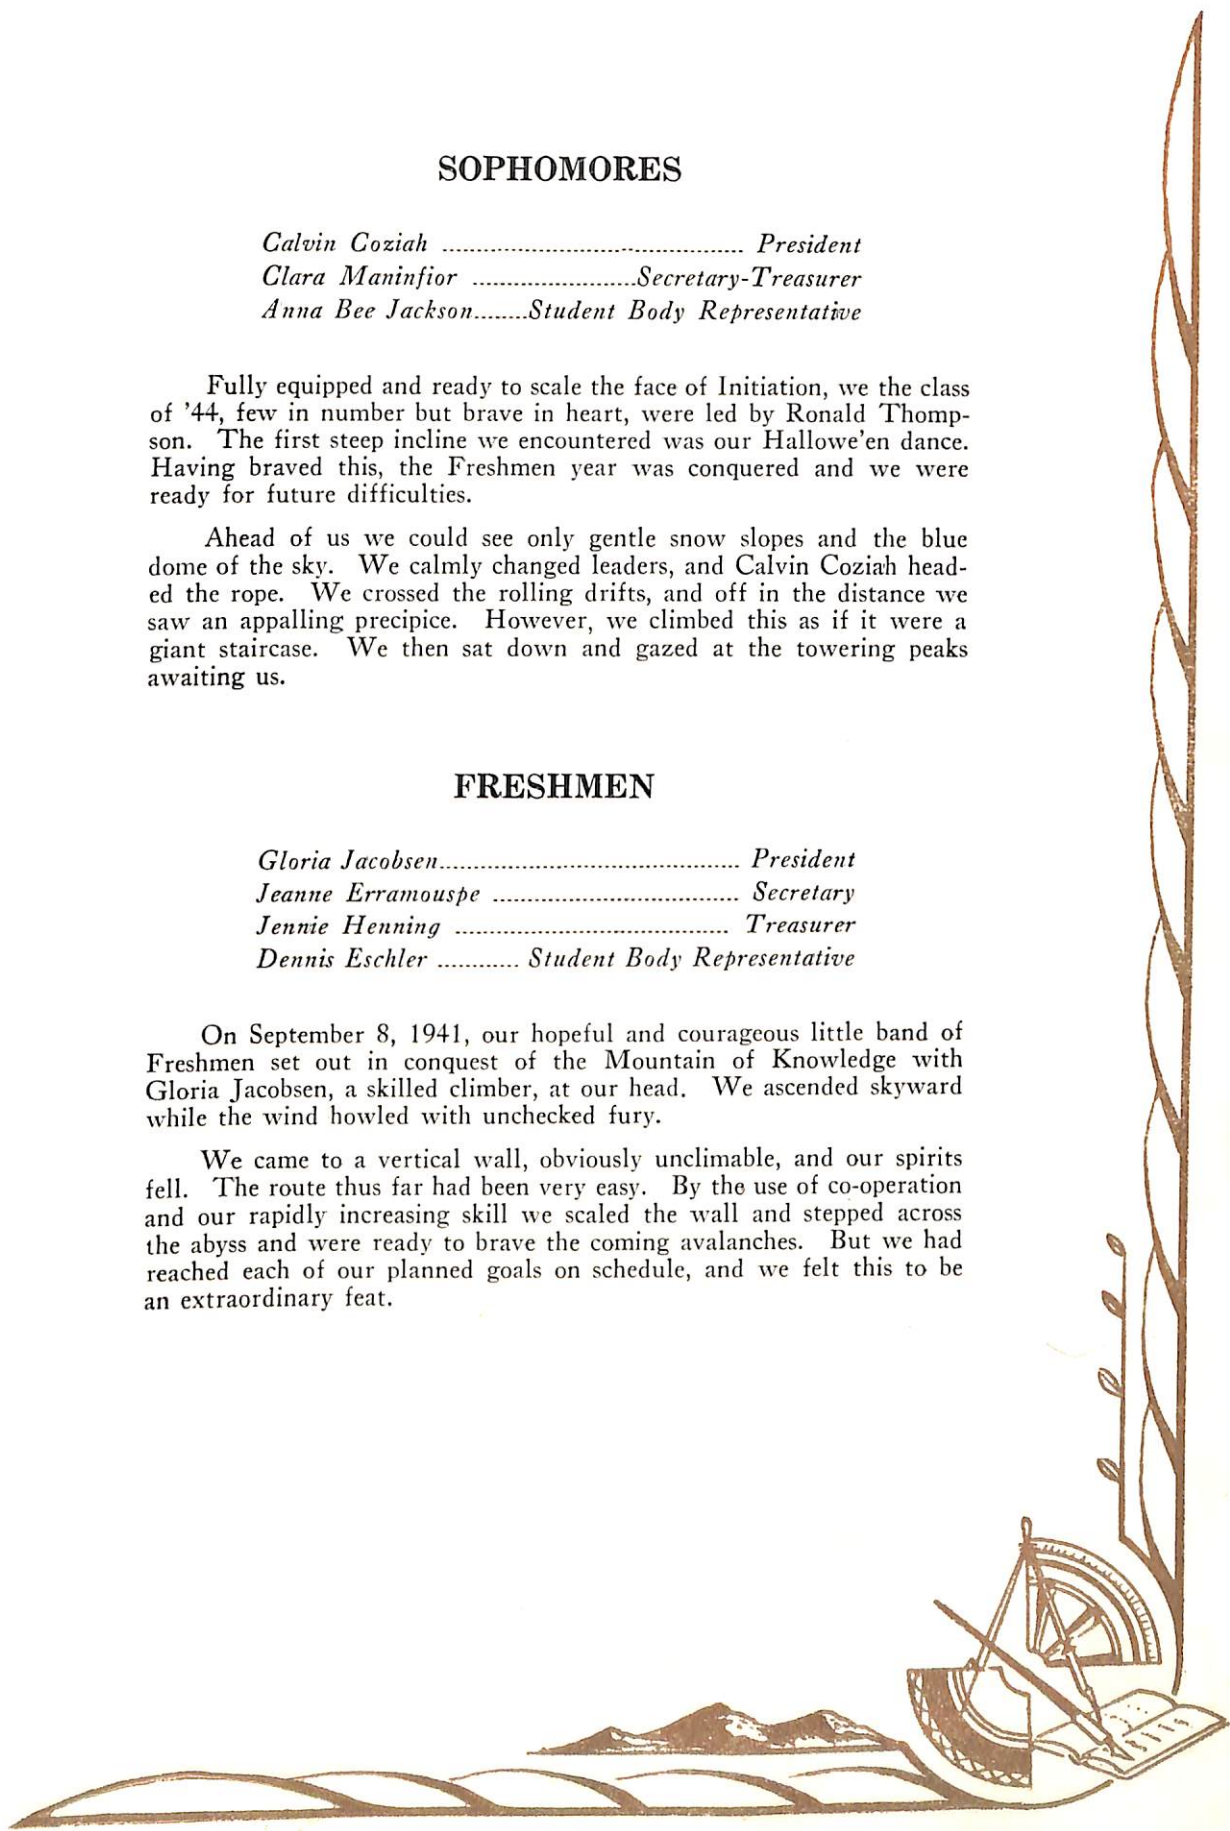

Ahead of us we could see only gentle snow slopes and the blue dome of the sky. We calmly changed leaders, and Calvin Coziah headed the rope. We crossed the rolling drifts, and off in the distance we saw an appalling precipice. However, we climbed this as if it were a giant staircase. We then sat down and gazed at the towering peaks awaiting us.

FRESHMEN

Gloria Jacobsen..... President
Jeanne Erramouspe ..... Secretary
Jennie Henning ..... Treasurer
Dennis Eschler ..... Student Body Representative

On September 8, 1941, our hopeful and courageous little band of Freshmen set out in conquest of the Mountain of Knowledge with Gloria Jacobsen, a skilled climber, at our head. We ascended skyward while the wind howled with unchecked fury.

We came to a vertical wall, obviously unclimbable, and our spirits fell. The route thus far had been very easy. By the use of co-operation and our rapidly increasing skill we scaled the wall and stepped across the abyss and were ready to brave the coming avalanches. But we had reached each of our planned goals on schedule, and we felt this to be an extraordinary feat.

COHOMECON

The members of both economics classes were given the opportunity to join the CoHomEcon Club. Officers were elected in the fall and plans were made and rules set up which were to be followed. Three parties were given during the year. Each girl participated and cooperated, and so our parties were very successful.

For our club projects we took cleaning and re-decorating our home economics room. New curtains were purchased and put up, new slip covers for our couch were made, and we gave the room a thorough cleansing.

We went to Superior to the club rally. The girls participated in the stunts and program and had a very good time.

We have had a successful year, and we hope that the members of the club next year will benefit from our success and failures.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Much fun, education, and personal physical development has been attained in the girls' physical education classes under the leadership of Miss Bradey.

Two days each week the girls reported to the gym, where they exercised by playing basketball, volley ball, or numerous other games. Every other Thursday swimming classes were held in our indoor pool.

After Christmas the second-year class was divided into groups of three. Each group was responsible for the games or activities for a certain day. Much fun was had because the girls would try not to have a repetition of games or stunts and so found or made up new and interesting ones.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club started working toward their goal of cheering the boys on early in October of '41. They began by electing officers, and later cheer leaders were selected by a student body vote.

The girls came to the games in new uniforms of black and orange. They used some old, some new, and some borrowed yells, but they were at every home game backing the Panthers with their cries for victory.

During the course of the basketball season the girls gave the team a party. This was a great success and every one enjoyed himself to the utmost.

The club members took it upon themselves to entertain the spectators during the halves of games. Many clever stunts were performed, the climax of these being a spectacular patriotic stunt. The girls wore red, white, and blue skirts and formed a U. S. A. with patriotic music for a background.

This has been an active season for the girls, and they want to will their pep and interest to the future pep clubs of their alma mater, Cokeville High.

GLEE CLUB

A group of thirty-eight girls registered for glee club this year. The students immediately began work on three-part songs. Time went by quickly. They learned thier songs for the Christmas program, and their melodious voices were put to test the night of the cantata.

After the holidays they once again looked forward to a concert. The girls practiced for three months, then brought forth their talent for the approval of the public. Having satisfied the local people, they matched their skill with that of other schools at Kemmerer and came home with high honors.

BAND

The band began the year in the right way by admitting several new members. Great effort was made to soften and enrich the playing tone of each instrument. Special sectional practices were held so that each player could play his part perfectly. Phonograph recordings were made so that the band could hear its mistakes and correct them, and this method proved very successful.

The band gave a concert early in April, and this concert was so effective that the band was sent to the district meet in Kemmerer, and very satisfactory ratings were earned.

F. F. A.

This agricultural organization was composed of thirteen members, with Calvin Coziath acting as its able and willing leader. Mr. Guffey was the new teacher in this department and made the classes interesting and enjoyable for the students. The annual carnival dance was presented in the early part of May.

Intensive classroom study and numerous field trips in the spring-time furnished most of the experience and knowledge gained. A number of the boys competed in the State Farmers' Mechanics Contest on October 1 at Laramie, gaining a good trip out of the venture as well as helpful experience.

SPANISH CLUB

Los estudiantes de las clases viejos y nuevos de espanol presentaron las fiestas grandes y todo el mundo comio y jugo. After this, they elected officers and gave other parties, picnics, and hikes. At all of these gatherings which they sponsored, every one had an enjoyable and unforgettable time.

ATHLETICS

The year '41-'42 consisted mostly of basketball and track so far as boys' athletics were concerned. Other sports such as tennis, volley ball, and archery supplemented the schedule.

The basketball team did very well for itself, despite frequent changes and interruptions; and the loss of Bob Cork at mid-season proved to be a hard and rather unexpected blow. In spite of these troubles, only two conference games were lost, and the boys played for the championship at the Green River District Tournament.

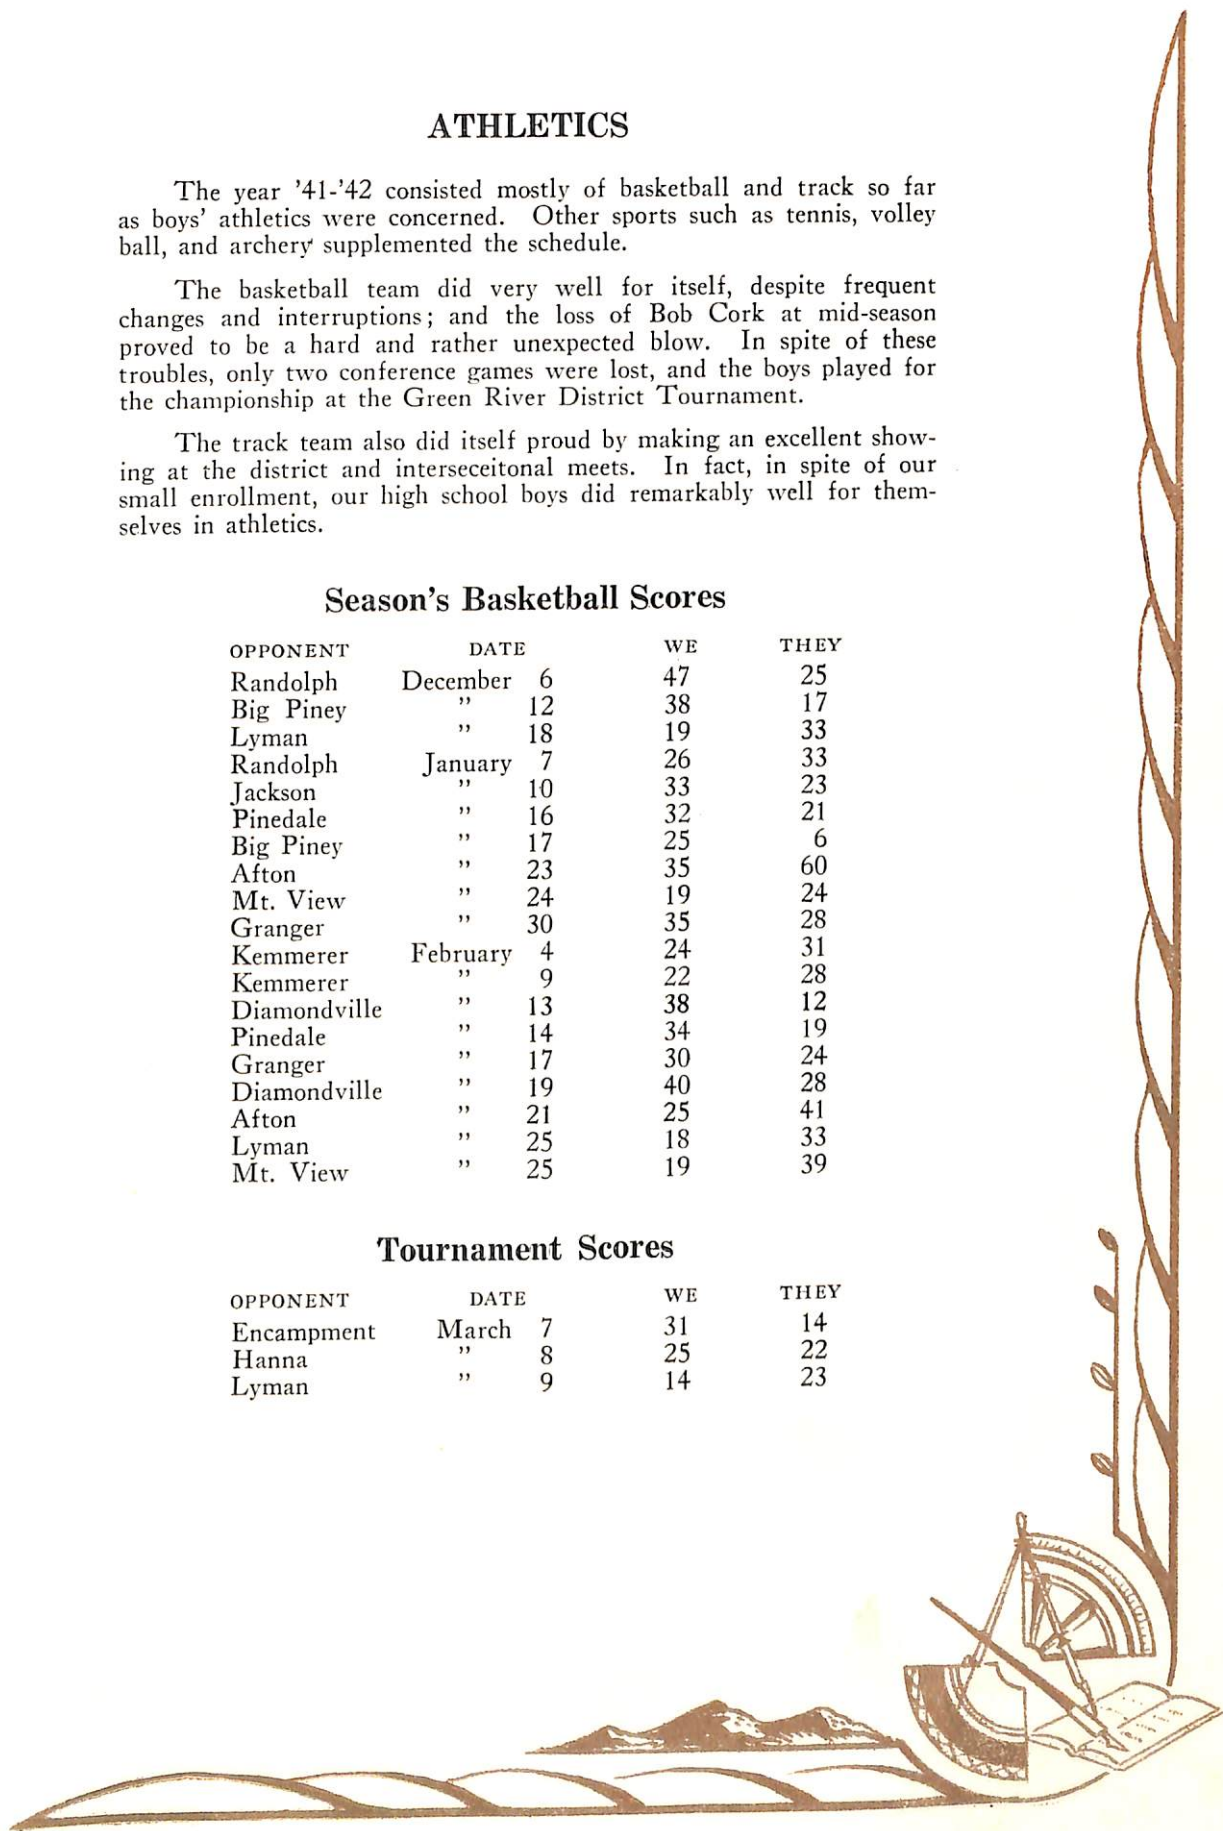

The track team also did itself proud by making an excellent showing at the district and interseceitonal meets. In fact, in spite of our small enrollment, our high school boys did remarkably well for themselves in athletics.

WE MUST REMEMBER

Laurie for her Latin-American ways.
Marianne for her ability to acquire all the hard jobs about school—and do them well.
Frances for her English expressions.
Edith for her pleasant personality.
Rhoda as always happy.
Bob Hendricks for his ambitions as a gob.
Horace Stocco as a brilliant student—and a darned good guy.
Calvin for his Dutch haircuts.
Mary O'Neill for her love of dancing.
La Voy for his acting ability
Dewayne for his artistic aspirations.
Marian for her knack of getting along with everyone.
Jeanne Dayton for her pleasant voice.
Shannon for her clothes.

JUST IMAGINE

Kenneth without Lilly.
Laurie without anything to say.
Rhoda going steady with one boy.
Fern excited.
Richard Perkins without an appetite.
Clara with straight blond hair.
Peggy angry.
The faculty shooting a deer.
La Von Dimick not having fun.
Mr. Dayton without a humorous story.

THEIR FAVORITE EXPRESSIONS

Richard Perkins: Holy Cow.
Bob Hendricks: Good Lord, no!
Miss Applegate: We'll have a test Friday.
Mrs. Morley: Quiet please! That was the bell.
Mr. Birch: Oh, yeah, that reminds me.
Bud Cory: What?
Kenneth Q.: Yes, sir!
Dewayne: Yes, sir!
Mr. Johnson: Now, here's what we'll do.
Horace: Gad!
Ronald: Hey, Joe!
Frances: Oh, gee!
Fern: I don't know.
Clara: I'll flunk that test as sure as I'm alive.
Rhoda: By grab!
Marianne: Gee criminey!
Laurie: Mein Gott!
Shannon: No hay.
Mrs. Teichert: I'm so worried about this annual.

TEN YEARS HENCE

Here it is the year 1952 and many members of the senior class of '42 have assembled to talk over the old times and their experiences since their graduation from high school.

We hear that Harold Alley is doing a few years in Alcatraz for reasons unexplainable, but we think it concerns a small fellow called Primo.

A gentleman passing through a city in Tennessee chanced to hear the tender quavering voice of Fern Bailey. Upon questioning her, he found that she had been a tobacco auctioneer for several years.

Because of the importance of her work, Marye Erramouspe has been unable to reunite with our class at this time, but soon we'll hear her blowing down the track, for she is the engineer of the streamliner. Because there is no one to take her place, Marye can only whistle as she goes by.

Marianne Gastenaga is proudly displaying her ribbons, medals, and trophies, for she has recently been given the title of Western States Champion Cow Milker.

Edith Igo stops in for a minute to chat with us, but she has to run home to get dinner for her boarders. She has opened a boarding house for the faculty of C. H. S.

Kenneth Quintana must be counted among the missing, for he is now the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Congress is in session arguing upon the extremely important bill concerning the building of a swimming pool in the mid-Pacific.

The chairman presiding over us is Horace Stocco, but he seems to be a bit nervous. Could it be that he is afraid of being overtaken? As you know, he is the cleverest "Baby Face" since Nelson, but the G-Men are after him for the grave offense of petty larceny.

Laurie Teichert is chatting with us about the wonders of Brazil, where she now lives and holds down an important office in the Pan-American Union.

We hear that Frances Rawlings has become a stalwart woman and has taken up prospecting, but in her spare time she has learned hog-calling for a hobby. She is as yet unsurpassed in this field.

Another one of the Seniors who have settled down to a peace-loving existence is Rhoda Zumbrennen. She motored from Ogden with her husband Glee and tells us that married life is blissful.

We must conclude our reunion now, but who can tell what the next ten years will bring?
