Reorganization Into County Wide District Brings Critical Change To Cokeville Schools

Last board of trustees for defunct School District #5. Left to right: Mr. Joe Deremedis, Mr. Bill Hutchinson, president and Mr. Orson Nate. Mr. Orson Nate and Mr. Joe Deremedis are members of the new county wide board. Mr. Nate is president.

Dr. Frank H. Neilson, previously superintendent of District #5, is now superintendent county wide district.

Mr. Clarence Birch, principal of Cokeville Schools under new County District Organization.

Mr. Lyle Forrest

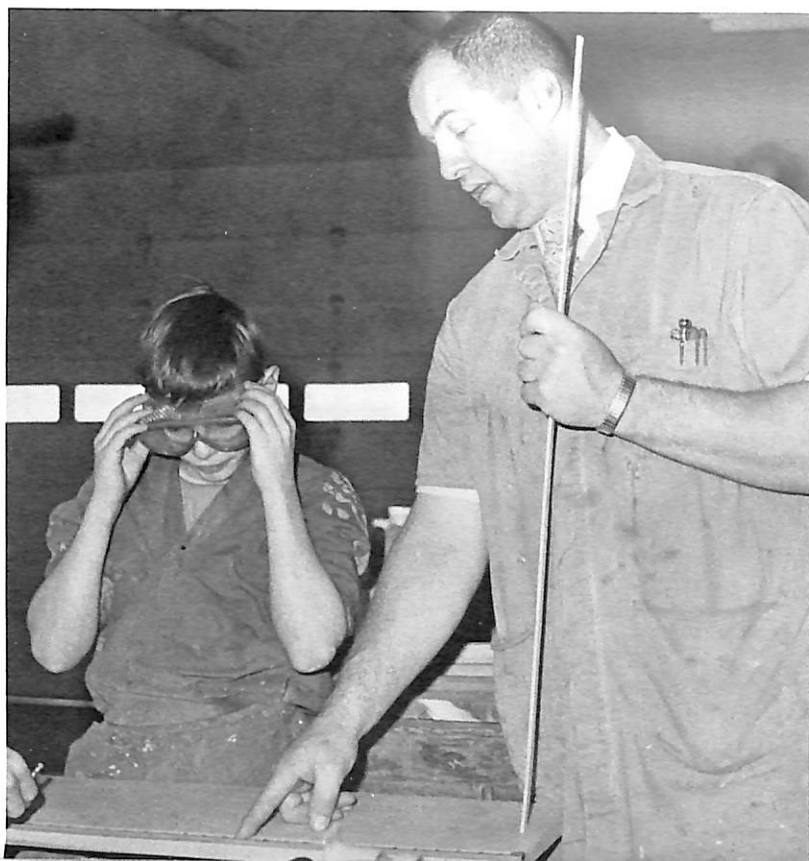

Mr. Forrest teaching the 8th grade science class. He also teaches photography.

Mrs. Elenore Birch, librarian

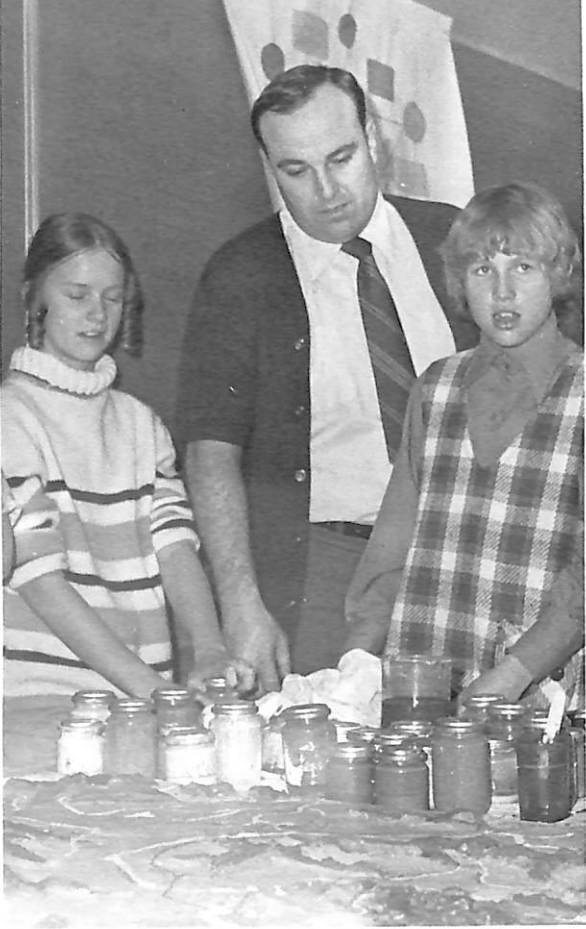

Mrs. Birch keeps the library in working order.

Coach Robert Dana is seen here trying to teach the boys about the shop skills.

Coach Watts teaching the 7th grade Social Studies.

Coach Caral Watts

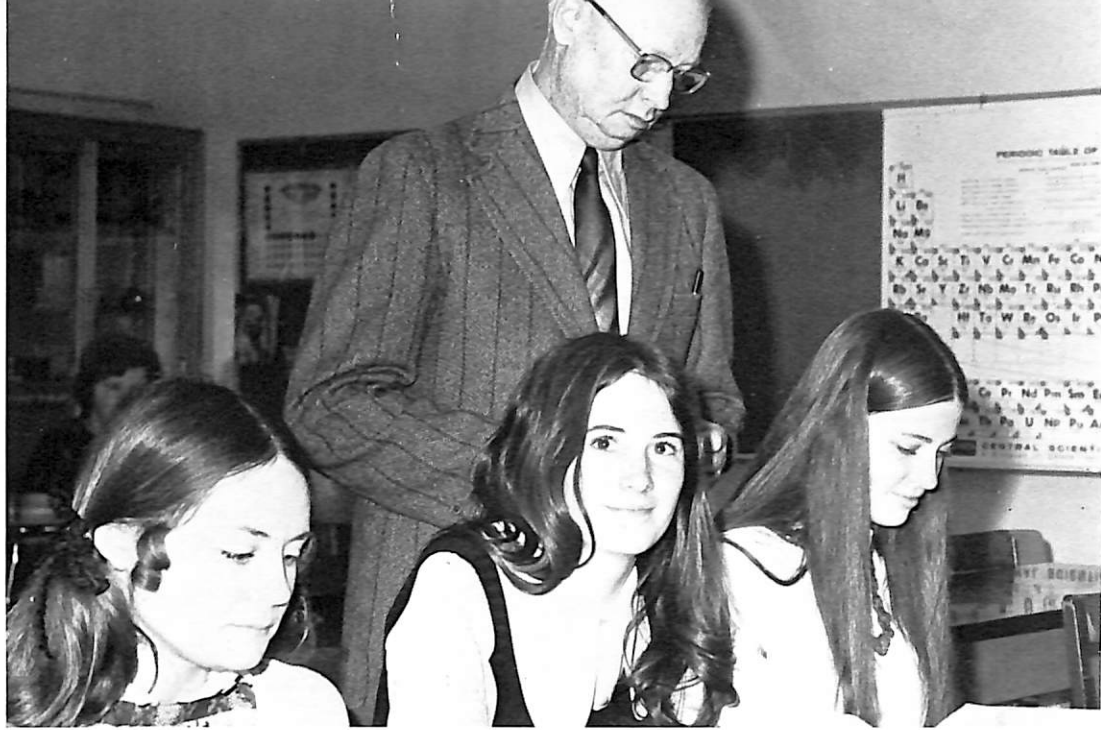

The teachers at C.H.S. this year have tried to keep up the academic level and make the students remain alert and on their toes. From the looks of things they haven't done too bad of a job.

Now where is that ball? Mrs. Genera Robinson girl's gym teacher

Mr. Clarence Birch

Mr. Birch watching some of his students gain knowledge for the future.

The teachers this year have worked many hard hours to get the students learning. They hope their hard work and long hours haven't been wasted. They have goals set they want the students to reach and they try to achieve them. As they hope to find the students can fulfill what they have planned.

Mrs. Clara Dayton is head of the Home Ec. department. She is doing a fine job of teaching the boys and girls of C.H.S.

Miss Marian Stander is seen here correcting papers. Her students all have the answers. Of course, they sometimes aren't quite what she has in mind.

Mr. Samuel Swassey has taught the band the past few years and helped to bring us back to the past ratings, a Superior and Excellent.

Mr. Lyle Wagstaff teaches the high school students English and literature. Gosh could he really enjoy that.

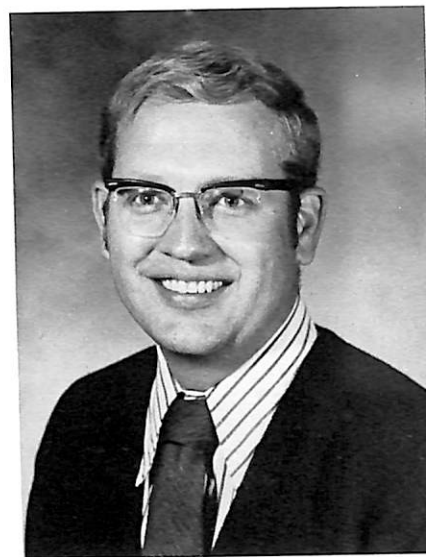

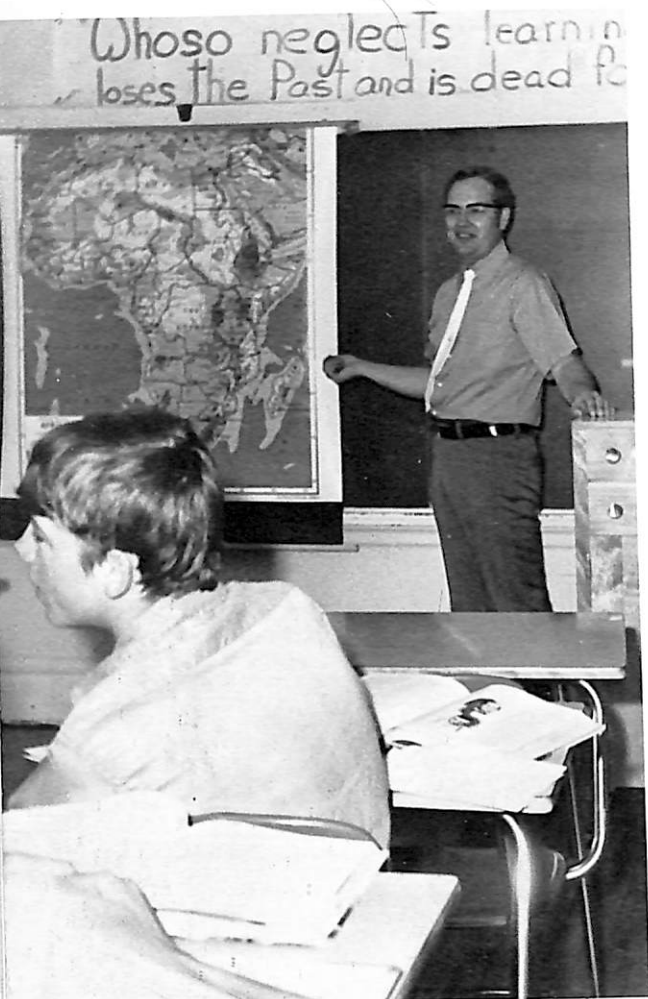

Mrs. Bette Rentfro keeps the school books and organizations business in order.

Mrs. Marie Curtis is a part time English teacher for the junior high students. Sometimes they are a trial, but her teaching experiences always get her through successful.

Mr. Terrel Robinson trying to teach the sophomores something about U.S. History.

Mr. Terrel Robinson, Social Studies

Hey Ann, what are we singing now?

Don't they all look so enthusiastic?

This year the number of members in both the band and chorus were few but they tried hard for a big sound.

The band travelled to Idaho State's Homecoming to march in the parade and attended the football game in the Mini Dome. They also had a party which ended with Mr. Swasey getting wounded. A few of the members of the band also attended the Jackson Clinic and the whole band attended festival in Kemmerer, where they received a superior rating.

A few of the members in the chorus also attended the Jackson Clinic, and the whole chorus attended the Kemmerer Festival, receiving an excellent rating.

Yes, this is our Editor.....

Yearbook Staff

This year the Yearbook Staff put much hard work and careful planning into the Yearbook. It had 11 active members each with his own special job. This years Editor Merlyn Pope, kept everyone in line and doing their job, with the help of Business Manager Kathy Knouse. The Staff took their annual ad trips to Kemmerer and Montpelier to build up their funds. Advisor of the Rambouillet was Mr. Lyle Wagstaff.

Oh, you're not thinking.

You call this hard work and planning??????

Photo Crew

DeAnn is this years hard working girl on the Photo Crew.

The Photo Crew has had a very busy year with all of the pictures they have had to do for the Year-book. They had 7 active members with their advisor Mr. Forrest. They put in many hours of hard work and did a fine job in the production of the pictures for the annual.

FTA

The FTA was kept busy this year by a new program of psychology. Many of the members participated in this while the others were kept busy teaching and on other projects. They participated in these activities under the direction of their advisor Mrs. Birch and also their officers.

Sandy Conner the President of the organization shows her ability as a Future Teacher.

Norma Neilson was this years Editor.

Sage

Hard work, long hours, and worry are the products of every Sage. This year there were 12 active members that worked on the staff. Miss Marian Stander was the advisor of the staff and kept things going. The staff worked hard to put out a Sage faithfully each month. Norma Neilson was the Editor of the Sage with Cheryl Petersen as her assistant.

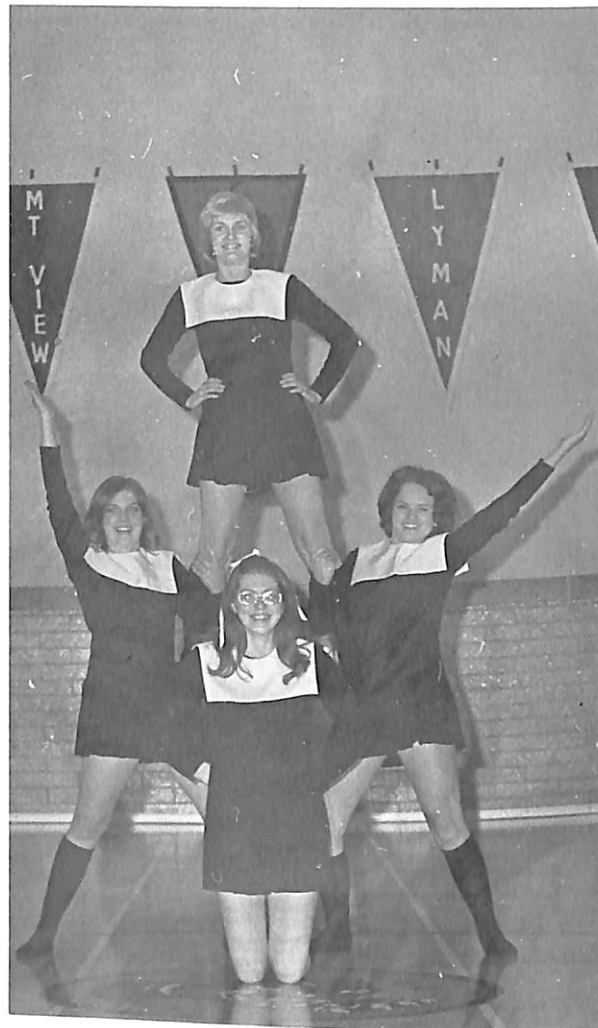

Some staff members plan the layout for the next Sage.

Pantherettes

"Pantherette Finale", highlight of the year.

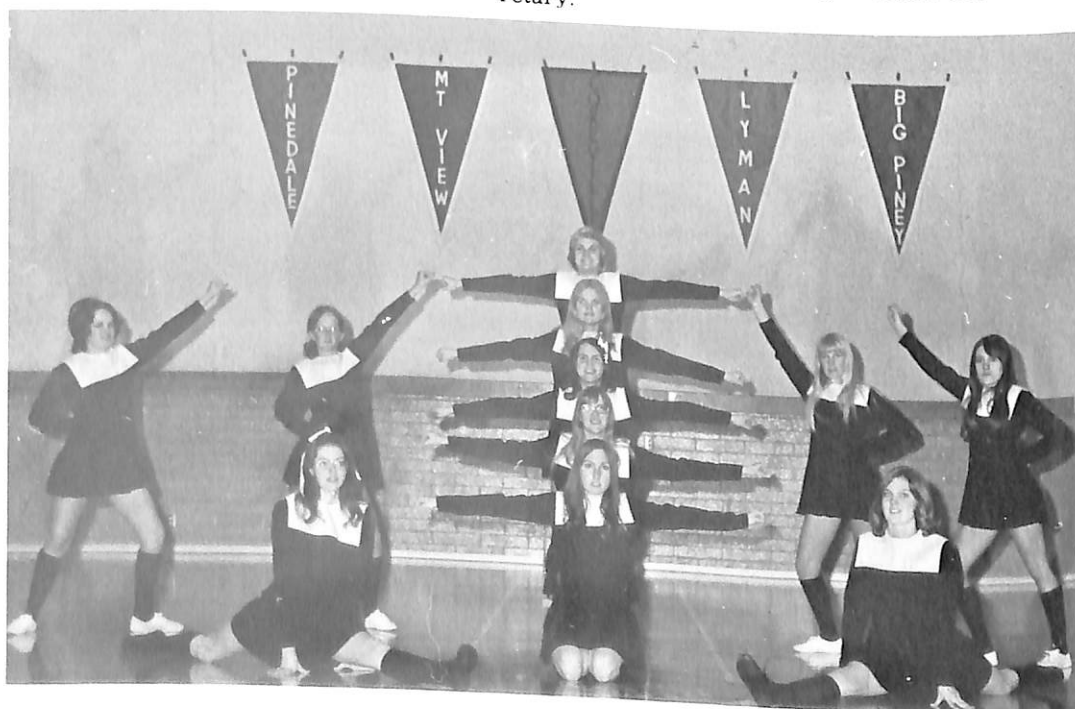

71-72 was a busy year for the Pantherettes. They were chosen the fall of last year and so had the opportunity of getting off to a good start during the summer. They performed at half times of both basketball and football games, always dazzling the audience. Also as in the annual tradition they had their Finale. It was during this that the Outstanding Pantherette was announced, the highest honor of a Pantherette.

Cheerleaders

This year the Cheerleaders were full of enthusiasm and pep. They attended a Cheerleading Clinic at BYU and were taught many new cheers and chants. They cheered for all three sports, Basketball, Football, and Wrestling. Some of their other activities were pep rallies, and they also had a dance to raise money. This year the Head Cheerleader was Kathy Knouse.

Pep Club

Barn dance, bake sale, Homecoming, and a bus to tournament are just a few of the activities of the Pep Club. They followed the team from town to town and from season to season. During football they were always there to cheer the team on to victory even though the weather was not so favorable. Also during basketball and wrestling they were always very loyal to the orange and black.

FHA

This year the Sweetheart Ball was decorated to the theme "Sweetheart Tree."

The FHA had a very busy year. They sponsored their annual activities such as a Sweetheart Ball, Little Miss FHA Pageant, Salute to America Program, and also their various Chapter activities. They also had one of their most interesting activities the Mothers Tea. In recent years they have also supported a little Chinese girl that lives in Taiwan.

Well, they had fun.

Gridders Have Successful Season

The Cokeville Panther football team got off to a good start this year by completely humbling two of the top teams in state. At one time they were rated in state but had a little hard luck towards the end of the season. The team was especially noted for its tenacious defense. At left, Crazylegs LaBleu finds himself open for a reception in the end zone as the Lyman defenders pursue.

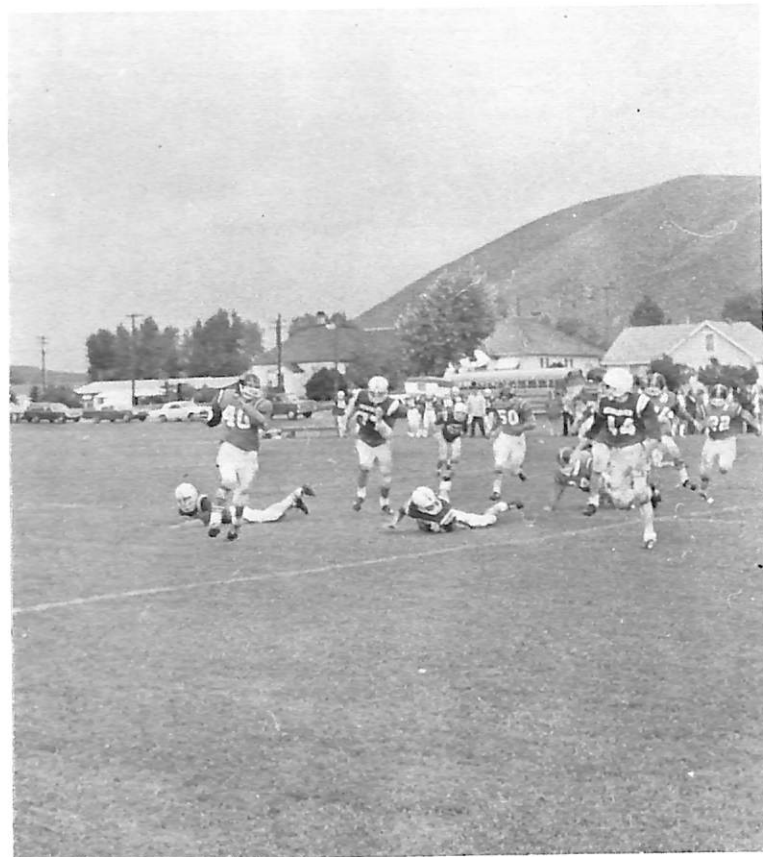

The defensive secondary, which didn't allow a touch-down pass all season, picks off another Wrangler aerial.

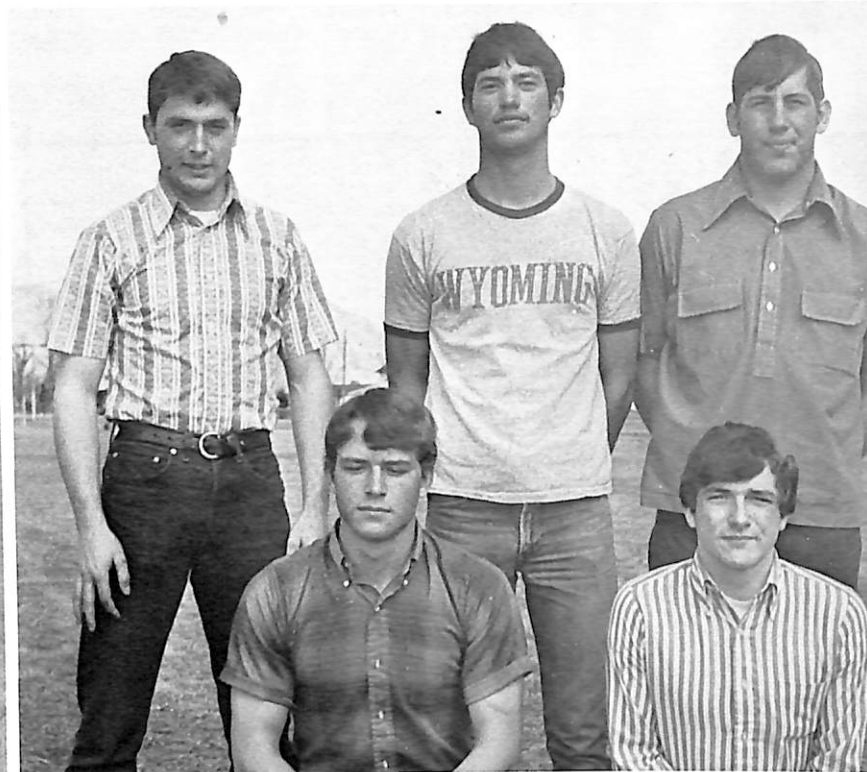

Which way did he go?

Panthers Gain Recognition

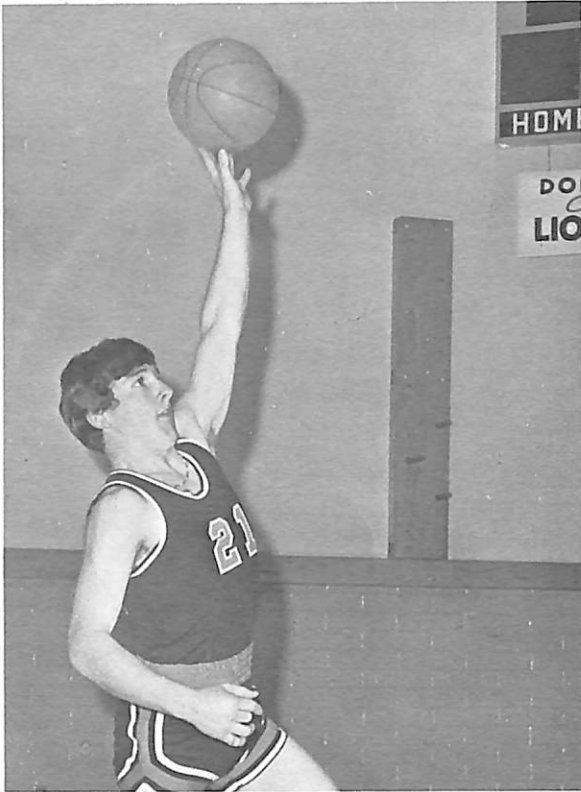

Petersen's speed enabled him to outrun the defenders around right end.

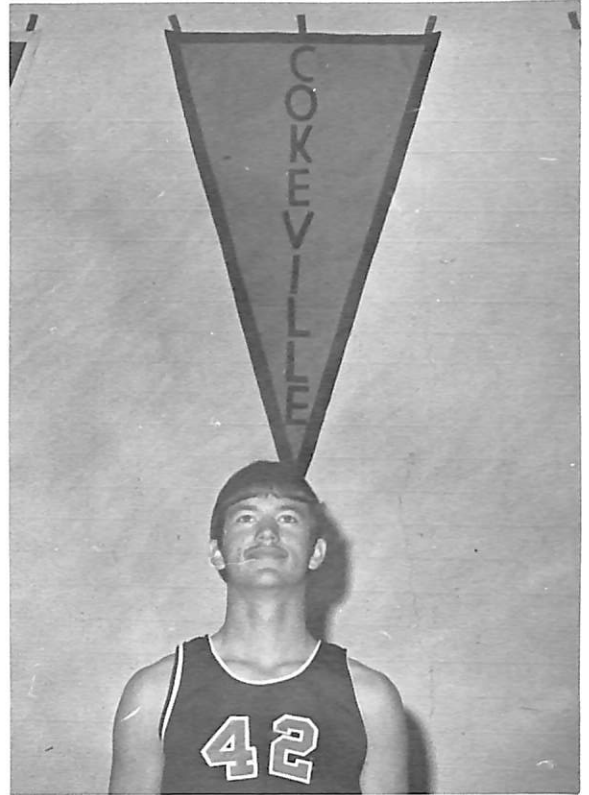

The following players were chosen on the All-Conference Team: Standing, Ron Teichert, Ron LaBleu, and Craig Taylor. Kneeling, Kelly Rentfro and Briant Teichert.

Sophomores: Class Of 74

This year the Sophomore class led by President Billy Johnson had a very successful year. We had two shows "Texas John Slaughter" and "McKenna's Gold." We also had one class party. As usual this year we had our disagreements about what we wanted to do. A big event was when we got our class rings this year instead of next year.

Double-trouble?

What kind of dancing do you call that?

Don't you think they're cute little bugs?

The Active Freshmen On Their Way

The Freshmen, with Mrs. Dayton as their adviser, were bubbling with enthusiasm. Their dance, with the theme "Yo Yo" and with "The Magic Toadstools" supplying the music, was a big success for them. They also had several class parties, not forgetting the F.H.A. initiation which the girls went through and came out alive and healthy. The enthusiasm these Freshmen have surely showed through during the year.

The class officers for the year were President, Chad Tiechert; Vice President, Michael Petersen; Secretary, Ronda Thoman.

Panthers' Homecoming Is Victorious

One of the floats in the parade, (which turned out to be a little snowy.)

The festivities started the night before with a street dance, pep rally, bonfire, speeches from the coaches. After that the pep club served hot chocolate and doughnuts.

Another shot of the parade with the Pantherettes doing their thing. The parade started after the morning assembly and the announcement of the king and queen.

This is the CHS mascot, Robbie Scott Petersen. He was the little school spirit all year.

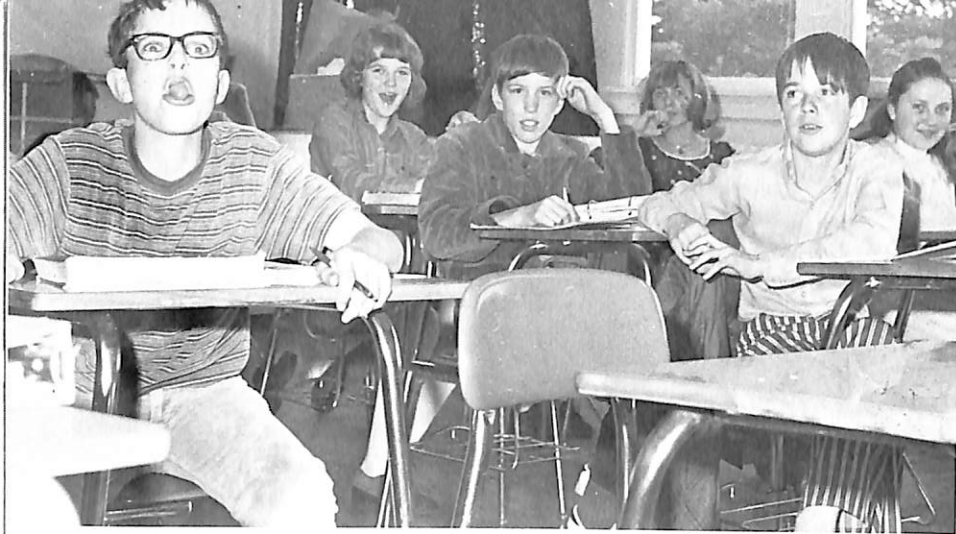

The football game started out with high hopes as the players came onto the field and jumped through the paper panther. The Cokeville Panthers ended the game with a 30-0 score over the Lyman eagles.

The royalty was announced at the morning assembly and were honored that evening at the dance. The queen, Rebecca Dayton; and the king, Ron LaBleu. To their left is the mascot.

The theme of the dance and of the whole homecoming was PANTHER VICTORY, IT'S THE REAL THING.
